Talman—Maupin.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., November 21.—A wedding of more than usual interest in local society was that this evening at Mr. Talman's Temple, Talman, of Richmond, and Miss Bessie Logan Maupin, daughter of Mr. W. L. Maupin, of the official clerk of the Circuit Court. The ceremony took place at the First Presbyterian Church, at 6 o'clock, the pastor, Rev. George L. Davis, D. D., officiating, and was witnessed by a large number of the friends of the contracting parties, including many out-of-town guests.

The best man was Mr. J. E. Richmond, of Richmond, brother of the groom, assisted by Messrs. J. Woods, Jr., John H. Woods, Louis T. Hartsell, and W. Allen Perkins, of Charlottesville, and H. M. Talman, and Alvin Smith, of Richmond, as ushers. The maid of honor was Miss Julia Maupin, sister of the bride.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. W. L. Maupin, of the Circuit Court, who is one of the most widely known citizens of Albemarle county. For three

RHEUMATISM AN ACID BLOOD POISON

Rheumatism is an acid blood poison, and the causes that produce it are often silently accumulating in the system for years. Poor digestion, stomach troubles, weak kidneys, torpid liver, and a general inactive condition of the system leaves the refuse and waste matter, which should be carried off, to sour and form uric acid, which is absorbed into the blood. When the blood is in this acid-charged condition, it deposits the poisons and irritating particles with which it is loaded in the muscles, nerves, joints and bones. Then Rheumatism gets possession of the system, and life is made miserable by its pains, aches and discomforts. The changing of the weather, exposure to cold and dampness, etc., always increase the trouble, and so severe does the pain become that quick relief must be had. A good liniment or plaster is often helpful, but it should be remembered that relief from such treatment is only temporary, because the trouble is in the blood and cannot be removed by external applications. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism by ridding the blood of the cause. It goes down into the circulation and by invigorating and purifying the blood of the acid-poison and sending a stream of fresh, rich blood to all parts, relieves the pain, reduces the inflammation, and permanently cures this painful disease. S. S. S. is the only safe treatment for Rheumatism, because it does not contain a particle of mineral in any form to damage the system. Cheeseman—Fawcett.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ALEXANDRIA, Va., November 21.—Miss Janet Brown Fawcett, daughter of Mrs. Edward Steadman Fawcett, of Alexandria, was married this evening at 8 o'clock in St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, which was prettily decorated for the occasion with palms and potted plants. The ceremony was performed by Rev. P. P. Phillips, the pastor, assisted by Rev. Douglas Hood, of Baltimore. The bride entered the church leaning on the arm of her grandfather, Mr. J. Wallace Hood, who gave her in marriage. The bridesmaids were Misses Richard Gibson, Miss Susan Shuler Fawcett, and Miss Ellen Douglas Fawcett, all of Alexandria. Mr. Wallace Hood Fawcett, of Alexandria, N. Y., brother of the bride, was best man.

Referring to the bridal party at the residence of the bride's mother on Fairfax Street, followed the ceremony. Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Cheeseman left for a Northern travel tour. They will make their future home in Scranton, Pa.

Letters to Unsuccessful Men

By the Author of Letters to a Self-Made Merchant to his Son who can raise a million dollars at an hour's notice, but who can't raise a boy.

JONAS SPURLOCK

HIS SON, JACK

who went through five thousand a year, but couldn't get through Harvard.

JONAS'S BROTHER, WILLIAM

who was a bunch of cows on a mountain range, where they can't graze an hour in any direction without stepping on the mortgage.

Jonas writes to Brother William that in spite of the fact that Jack has been given everything that money can buy he has made a mess of his life.

Here follow some extracts from Brother Bill's letter in reply:

"Jack is your problem and you're welcome to it. You could solve it, but you won't, because Jack isn't wheat, or steel, or stocks, but just flesh and blood."

"If he were a million-dollar deal gone wrong, no subordinate could touch him. But when your son starts for hell in a canter, you send a hired man after him to beat him back with a club."

"Have you looked up the men who have taught Jack as carefully as those that you have hired to run your plants?"

"You expected him to associate with idlers and not be idle; to make friends among the foolish and not be a fool. That is a pretty big contract for one boy to fill, even with a father working overtime to help him."

"You and your special breed of business men are all alike. You begin in your corner groceries sanding the sugar for pennies; and you finish in Wall Street sanding the sugar for millions."

A HEROIC RESCUE ON STEAMSHIP ALLEGHANY

Jumps Overboard and Swims Half Mile to Brother Astern.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NEWPORT NEWS, Va., November 21.—When the British steamship Allegany arrived here to-day from Liverpool the officers told a thrilling story of a rescue at sea. During a storm on the afternoon of November 18th the ship's carpenter, Sydnor, was washed overboard, when the Allegany was pitching and tossing in a violent sea.

First Officer Sydnorham, brother to the carpenter, seized a life belt, sprang overboard, swimming half a mile astern to his brother, who was exhausted from battling with the waves and almost ready to go down.

A boat, manned by Second Officer Taylor and six men, put off from the ship and picked up both men. The heroic vessel lay to, and after great difficulty the boat was safely hoisted aboard.

SUSTAINS THE CITY.

Man Kept on Chain Gang After Fine Is Paid Cannot Recover.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LYNCHBURG, Va., November 21.—In the City Circuit Court Judge Barksdale has just handed down an important opinion in the case of Stanton vs. the City of Lynchburg, in which the plaintiff was seeking to recover $5,000 damages for having been kept on the city chain gang several days after his fine had been paid. At the September term the defendant, through City Attorney Mahan, demurred to the declaration on the ground that the function of the city in the management of the chain gang was governmental and not ministerial, and therefore, was not responsible for the wrongful or improper act of its servants in the management of the chain gang. Judge Barksdale sustained the demurrer, and has entered judgment in behalf of the city.

WOMAN TO BE TRIED.

Fled From Indictment, But Has Returned.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LYNCHBURG, Va., November 21.—The last of the women indicted at the September term of the Corporation Court for the alleged operation of houses of ill fame, has just been arrested after her return from Roanoke, where she has been since her indictment. It will be recalled that sixteen other women, both white and black, were permitted to plead guilty and be fined $50, given an hour in jail and placed under bond for their future behavior, but Mayor Smith has refused this woman's request, and she will be tried in the Police Court Friday morning. It is thought Mayor Smith's action in this case is because the woman fled from the indictment.
